

A decorative graphic on the left side of the slide. It consists of a blue parallelogram and a light green parallelogram, both tilted at an angle. The blue shape is in the foreground, and the green shape is partially behind it. They are set against a dark blue background with subtle diagonal lines.

ROAD MAP, VISION BOARD, AND VALUE PROPOSITION

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Identify what career path you want to take.

Explore and create your own road map and vision board to prepare your steps towards your goal.

Creating your vision statement and value proposition to help you get started on your career and goals.

IDENTIFY YOUR ROAD MAP

What do you want to do?

What is your plan after Senior High School?

How are you going to do it?

STEP 1: IDENTIFY YOUR ROAD MAP AND KEY MILESTONES

Start by creating your Vision Statement.

SKILLS RATING

Identify your current skill vs. what you need to achieve your goal or career.

SELF-ASSESSMENT

Practice self-assessment and criticisms on your works or goals or skills.

VISION STATEMENT

According to GlassDoor, personal vision statements are a great way to identify your long-term career goals, help you achieve short-term goals, and support you as you pursue new job opportunities and professional experiences.

VISION STATEMENT

This statement can be used as a guide when determining the career to pursue, making important life decisions, planning how you'll accomplish goals, and realizing your life dreams. In a professional sense, a personal vision statement also referred to as a career vision statement or career mission statement is a statement that identifies your long-term career goals and your key strengths.

STEP 2: PUTTING IT IN PRACTICE

WORK FOR IT.

WORK ON IT.

Implement your goals by the help of a road map.

You can create a template of your own.

YOUR CAREER GOAL IS EQUAL TO YOUR PERSONAL SKILLS

ALIGNMENT is the key to higher chances of success in meeting your career goal.

Do not possess the skill you need?

1. RESEARCH
2. FIND WAYS HOW YOU WILL LEARN THE SKILL.
3. PRACTICE
4. MASTER THE SKILL.
5. ONE STEP CLOSER TOWARD YOUR GOAL.

VALUE PROPOSITION

For individuals, the VALUE PROPOSITION is about finding what is unique and distinct about who you are, and what you bring to an organization or an opportunity.

STEP 1: WRITING VALUE PROPOSITION

Consider your vision statement.

Align your vision statement and skills to your goal.

GUIDE QUESTIONS TO HELP YOU

How are my character and personality distinct, unique, and can it be of value to my future employer or company or to the goal I want to pursue?

How is my skill set unique, distinct, and possibly transferable?

How would it be of value to my employer, company, and goal?

How are my vision and goals in life distinct and unique to whoever hires me or to my goal?

BEGIN IN 1 GOAL

Write or list down your goals.

You can categorize them by short-term or long term goals.

SMART GOALS

S - SPECIFIC

Must be well defined and specific

M - MEASURABLE

Assessment to measure one's progress

A-ATTAINABLE

Something you can do and achieve

R-REALISTIC

Relevant to your skills and goal

T-TIMEBOUND

Set a timeline or a schedule

VALUE PROPOSITION FORMAT

“Hi, my name is _____, and my goal is to be a _____
_____. My (insert your skills, attributes) offer (what can you bring to them). My goals and intentions will support your company by (give them your selling point) in doing better at (list down a related skill or situation in their company).”

VISION BOARD

To assist you and motivate you, create your own Vision Board with images to support your goals.

Be it travel goals, career goals, or things that make you want to live life.

CONCLUSION

KNOW YOURSELF.

You need to know who you are and what you can do.

Companies hire employees who knows who they are and what they can do.

THE FUTURE BELONGS TO THOSE WHO BELIEVE IN THE BEAUTY OF THEIR DREAMS.

Eleanor Roosevelt

References

- <https://www.glassdoor.com/blog/guide/personal-vision-statement-examples/>